2015 produced amazing accomplishments!

- Sherri Glas fought hard and retained the top spot wearing the black-bib as the fastest woman in MACC. Sherri extends her dynasty for yet another year.
- Drew Hilger earned the new top-spot Male speed-star status by upsetting the perennial King; Kermit Anderson. Next year Drew will wear the men's black-bib as the fastest man in MACC.
- Roma Anderson, Shayanne Glas, Nick Chiappetta, TJ Graham, Carly Arthurs, Matt Benivegna and Owen LaPlante led a new edge of young racers in 2015, making their presence felt here in the Michigan Alpine Competition Council and soon, the world.
- Keli Mazzenga, Dana Bloodworth, Ryan Perlmutter, Zach Jablonski, Alex Carrico, Kaitlen Aitken are stepping into MACC in new and exciting ways of contributing to make MACC fun continue into the next generation.
- Matt Benivegna earned a berth in CUSSA to compete in the 2015 U-14 Junior Nationals.
- Joe Pioche improved his handicap this year by an astounding 27.4 points taking top honors.
- The Skiwi's clean sweep of the Team Competition by taking the Slalom, Giant Slalom and Overall writes new history as the 9th wonder of the world. Similarly, the Renegades rose to second in Slalom and Overall.
- MACC welcomed more than twelve new racers this year and several racers returning after a period of absence. Over fifty-two guest races were held in 2015. Four of those guests converted to full memberships. Three or four more said they planned to join next year.
- MACC unveiled 2015 a new Logo and as a result, a fresh new look and energy. Thank you Debi Lewis Koltoniak.
- Race Bib styling was upgraded big-time thanks to Alexandra Carrico.

MACC 2015 Reflection & Appreciation

September 18, 2015 - Scott Pyles, President, Michigan Alpine Competition Council

As I reflect on the past 2015 season I am excited to look forward to 2016. I reflected on the experiences that made 2015 a great season of racing. I had the privilege to watch each of 175 MACC racers many times. I was able to experience your runs, your wins, your struggles and your deep enjoyment of skiing, racing and being together.

Racing with Equal Intentionality

Racing is a highly individual moment of being. When you are on the course – it's just you. We all experience similar flutter in the stomach, quickened pulse and heightened awareness in the eyes as we move into the starting gate. The sub-conscious begins to exclude outside stimuli. In that deafening silence our eyes rivet on the first few gates. When the starter says go – there is that moment where all is frozen. Then suddenly the body and mind spark into an irreversible commitment. The race is on.

Enthusiasm for Each Other's Racing

Crossing the finish-line, you exit the finish coral and rejoin others as the final judgment is announced by the timers. Then reflections begin; chattering, watching and cheering. During and after; congratulations, hugs, condolences and words of support flow freely.

Celebrating Together is on the Rise

Last year I noticed changes in our ways of celebrating. For example; there were more people attending the awards ceremonies in the Snowflake. We stayed longer, interacted more and left to dinner in groups more.

The participation is increasing use of the MACC Facebook page to share and reflect real-time.

Nichol's Ski & Snowboard broke out of the standard Sponsor mold to create a hot-dog fest and day-long presence on Superbowl.

We are all very grateful for the overwhelming support of MACC Racing given to us by Boyne Mountain, Norm's Ski Shop, Shaggy's Copper Country Skis, Dr. Carder Burns and Nichols Ski & Snowboard.

Toledo Ski Club's All-MACC gala was an Awesome Evening in Sub-Zero weather. In the process the evening produced a number of new guest racers the next day.

Kathy Bauer invited the MACC World into her home for another wonder-filled winter evening of fun, friends and food. Thank you to Kathy, Ginnie, Renee, Mike, Jackie and all who created that memorable evening. MACC is more than just world-class racing. It's a fun group of people.

Long standing grudge-matches were resolved, new ones started. New friends are created and old friendships are nurtured. 2015 was an awesome season that allowed us to come together to be together. I for one am looking forward to 2016. How about you? This year, bring your friends!

Sharing our passion for winter since 1954

What is MACC?

The Michigan Alpine Competition Council (MACC) is a non-profit organization of ski clubs and racers who run the premier adult alpine ski racing league in the Michigan, Ohio and surrounding states. We ski together, we celebrate together, and we build memories together while enjoying a common sport.

MACC race series covers 12 races over 5 weekends from January to March. We race Slalom and Giant Slalom at each race and Super G, twice a year.

Races are at Boyne Mountain, MI. One race per year is held at Searchmont, Ontario or Marquette, MI

MACC racers are members of ski clubs in the midwest and represent their clubs in team scoring. We race by ability and gender groups. All ages are welcome from 14 - 114.

MACC welcomes new members and we look forward to racing with you and your friends.

Upgrades for 2015

Each weekend, racers whose average handicaps have dropped out of the minimum for their class are listed here. They are upgraded, after official approval at the following MACC meeting.

The list here shows the handicap (HC), the minimum HC for the old class, and the new class for the racer. If you are not already in an open Elite class, getting an upgrade is the ultimate honor in the MACC. Congratulations!
