CHAIRMAN'S COMMENTS:

- The next meeting will be held at MERRILL LYNCH 39577 Woodward Avenue Ste #100 the office is located on the southwest corner of Long Lake (18 Mile), in front of the office building there is a Dow Jones ticker sign. When you're heading south on Woodward the office entrance is the first right south of Long Lake Rd. Parking is in the rear of building. You then want to enter the north building and keep walking until you see the sign that will put out for the meeting. A map will be posted on the website.
- Mike has sent a letter to the MDSC club presidents promoting the race program. Please continue to hand out our brochures and get them placed in ski shops in the area.

REGISTRATION: A list of racers that registered directly with the MACC was distributed to each club. Lou will keep this list updated and posted on the web. Lou and Brian U. will work on getting the bibs ordered. 189 registrations on hand at the end of this meeting.

TIMING & RESULTS: Still looking for more timers, contact Mike with your recommendations.

FINANCIAL: $7,800 cash on hand.

PUBLICITY & AWARDS: Beer glasses (pints) for individual awards, pitchers for the Cantor Cup, World Cup awards T.B.D.

WORK ASSIGNMENTS: Need to develop job description for Super Bowl Shack inside job – late registration, guest racers ect. Mike will work with Karen.

NEWSLETTER: Sponsor Logo's will be added to the newsletter.

OLD BUSINESS: What to do about SVD and D2? We will review the registrations for this season and make a decision prior to the start of the season.

NEW BUSINESS: Lot's of discussion regarding inexperienced / new racers – course options. The coaching by the pace setters was very well received last season.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:25 p.m. Next meeting January 2, 2001, 7:00 p.m. Merrill Lynch – Bloomfield Hills.

Respectfully submitted,

Brian Dusina
